Roll of Honour.

WE have unfortunately another long list to record of Old Boys who have died in their country's service.

W. STUART ADDISCOTT (1909, Spurgeon's), was killed on September 29th, 1917, in a German counter-attack.

VINCENT W. BAILEY (1913, Brading's), 5th Wilts, enlisted in August, 1914, and took part in the Gallipoli expedition. He has been missing since August, 1915, and it is now assumed that he was killed.

F. R. CUBBON, M.C. (1906), Captain, Indian Army, attached R.F.C. He gained the distinction of the M.C., and a Bar in the same gazette. He was recently reported "missing," and then "killed."

D. J. F. DREDGE (1913, Brown's), Gunner, R.F.A., died on January 31st, 1918, at a Casualty Clearing Station.

K. L. GOPSILL (1913, Brown's), Captain, East Surreys, attached R.F.C. After brilliant services he was killed in a flying accident, February 15th, 1918.

H. R. HICKS (1915, Brading's), 2nd Lieut., R.F.C., reported killed in action during our offensive on October 12th, 1917. He is described as a brilliant pilot.

G. M. JAMES (1907), Corporal, Despatch Rider, after serving two years in France went out to German East Africa, contracted malaria and enteric and died December 27th, 1917.

P. KING (1908, Tulley's), Rifleman, 12th London, was killed in action on December 9th, 1917.

H. J. LEWIS (1903), Private, H.A.C., entered the Civil Service on leaving school. He was reported missing on October 9th, 1917, and is now officially reported killed.

L. O. LIBBY (1905), Rifleman, 8th Battn. Rifle Brigade. After serving in South Africa he went to France, was wounded near Ypres in June, 1916, and again on December 3rd, 1917, near Cambrai. He died on December 4th of his wounds.

C. S. NIGHTINGALE (1912, Spurgeon's), Rifleman, London Scottish, after long service in France, was killed in action November 30th, 1917.

H. T. C. PARK (1903), Lance-Corpl., Dublin Fusiliers, died on November 18th, 1917, at Netley Hospital of wounds received on October 4th.

S. PROCTER (1909, Brown's), Rifleman, C.S.R., died in France of wounds received in action on November 29th, 1917.

C. R. RAWBONE (1915, Roper's), 2nd Lieut., R.F.C., died on December 18th, of injuries received in a flying accident at Lilbourne, near Rugby.

M. J. RHODES (1896), L.R.B., who was reported missing, is now officially reported "died of wounds on or soon after September 20th, 1917."

F. B. ROGERS (1913, Spurgeon's), Lance-Corpl., 8th London, was killed in action on December 7th, 1917.

R. D. SYMMONS (1911, Cribb's), London Scottish, was one of the first of our old boys to die in his country's cause. He was long reported missing and is now believed to have been killed on November 1st, 1914.

L. J. TYLER (1912, Tulley's). Bombing Lance-Corpl., Queen's Westminsters, joined the Army in September, 1914. Nothing definite is known of him since the action at Gommecourt, July 1st, 1916, and it is now presumed that he was killed on that day.

H. WHITE (1908, Brading's), Lance-Corpl., L.R.B., enlisted in October, 1914. After service in France and at Salonica, he died in Palestine of wounds received on November 9th, 1917.

B. H. WINSLOW (1899), 2nd Lieut., 6th London, badly wounded in September, 1915, went out again to France in October, 1917, and was killed in action on November 29th.

His brother, NATHANIEL WINSLOW (1896), Company Sergt.-Major, Winnipeg Grenadiers, was killed in action on April 17th, 1917.

L. WOODS (1900), Sergt. Instructor, 3rd Canadian Divisional Gas School, died of wounds December 26th, 1917.

H. T. BRODERICK (1909, Brown's), Lieut., Royal West Surreys, died on December 29th, 1917, of wounds received while defending a position in the Jerusalem defences.

V. H. HERON (1913, Roper's), Private, Artists Rifles, took part in the operations at Passchendaele Ridge on October 30th, 1917, and was reported missing. Inquiries have been fruitless and there is reason to fear that he was killed on that date.

S. CHAPPELL (1913, Brading's), 2nd Lieut., R.F.C., though very young saw considerable service in France. After an accident he returned to England and was killed on service, February 28th, 1918. Aged 19 years.

G. A. EADIE (1913, Tulley's), Private, 2nd Battn. Royal West Surreys.

WILFRID N. CROSS (1915, Brading's), Flight Sub-Lieut. R.N.A.S., son of the late Mr. F. G. Cross, was killed near Ramsgate in a seaplane accident, March 6th, 1918.

Editorial.

A CERTAIN form recently had set for an essay the subject, "The Ideal School Magazine," and weird and wonderful were the opinions of the essayists. The usual ideal magazine was found to consist of about sixty pages, in which school notes and news, and house events were to be chronicled at greater length than at present. All reference to the Old Boys, however, was to be carefully avoided. The remaining space was to be filled with stories, both serial and otherwise, articles, alleged humour, and drawings from budding R.A.'s. All this, be it noted, was to be contributed by the boys themselves.

It has therefore been considered expedient to place before our readers what are more or less the aims and objects of this publication.

Firstly, we would beg members of the School to remember that they compose a fraction only of the public who read this magazine. The Old Boys take a great interest in the School of the present day, although many of them departed before some of us first saw the light. The magazine is to them a keenly-anticipated pleasure, when perusing, say, an account of the Cup Final, they are brought back to the days when they cheered their House to victory, or even were among the gladiators themselves. Turning over the page, they read that Capt. Blank Dash has just been awarded the Military Cross:—"Fancy old Dash winning the M.C. Shouldn't have thought he would be much good as a soldier!" Then—"Hullo! Mr. C—— must have had a nasty accident. I remember when I was in his form——" and so on ad lib.

Firstly, then, the School Magazine is a strong link, connecting the Old Boy with the School.

It seems that, although the majority wish School news to be expanded, some people want it contracted, mainly because, when it reaches the reader, it is out of date. Maybe, for that month, or term. But paradoxical as it may seem, the news after a time becomes fresh again. On taking up an old number of the magazine (for we so far flatter ourselves as to think that readers keep their old copies), young What's-his-name discovers that he was right after all in his argument that Tulley's won the Shooting Shield in 1917.

The second office of the magazine is to serve as a permanent record for all School events.

The reason that stories, sketches, etc., are not printed is an extremely simple one: they are never given in to the editors for publication. In the last issue we printed an appeal for articles, "letters to the editor," and contributions generally: we were so brave as to challenge our budding poets to do their best—or worst!—with a view to publication. How many contributions did we get? None!—on account of the paper shortage, we suppose. The contents of this magazine have in the main been sent in by our good friends the masters, and one or two of the prefects—this effusion emanates from one of the editors: but of its kind it is a solitary example. Some of the sports news comes from the prefects, as does some of the School notes—but for the rest, prefects and boys are nowhere!

Come along, you poets and authors and artists, get your pens and paper, and start straight away for YOUR contribution to the next issue of the magazine!

WE are heartily glad to see Mr. Carrick back at school this term.

WE regret that Mr. Woodruff, who took Mr. Carrick's place last term has had to leave us to take up work at Oxford. We trust he bears with him none but pleasant memories of Alleyn's.

INSTEAD of the usual Mid-Term Service, a Memorial Service was held at the College Chapel on February 27th. A full report will be found elsewhere.

OWING to the difficulty in providing hot meals at the School, the Dinner Interval has been prolonged until 2 p.m. This will give all boys who live near the School one and a half hours clear to get home for a suitable mid-day meal. In order that lessons may not be curtailed, afternoon school will not finish until 4.15 p.m.

THE School will provide for those boys who are compelled to remain here the following meals :—

(1.) In the Dining Hall :

- (a) Soup, bread, potatoes, and pastry on three days of the week at an inclusive charge of 6*d.*
- (b) A vegetarian dish and pastry on two days at a similar inclusive charge.

(2) In the Buttery :

A selection of light refreshments including potatoes, 1*d.* ; pastry, 2*d.* ; Oxo and toast, 2*d.*

OWING to the exigences of the time, it has been decided to abandon the Prefects' Tea and Concert this year. It is hoped, however, that it will be possible to hold it when more favourable conditions exist.

At a meeting of the College Governors held in February, the Chairman, Lord Cheylesmore—who is also the Chairman of the Navy and Army Canteens Board—referred to the excellent work done by boys from Alley's School at the Harvest Camp last summer. After stating that he knew how highly appreciated this work was by the authorities, he moved the following resolution which was passed unanimously : "That the best thanks of the Governors be given to Messrs. Kingswell, Linnell, Dutton, and Coates, and to the boys who attended the Harvesting Camp for their very valuable services, and that they be congratulated on the record which they established."

THE cost of producing the magazine has greatly increased and this has led to a reduction in size.

WILL the relatives and friends of those who have fallen kindly take for granted the usual expressions of sympathy in these columns ? And those who have won honour, will they excuse the omission of the customary forms of congratulation ?

THE School officials this term are : School Prefects : H. P. J. Clark (Captain of the School), G. V. Constantinidi, W. R. Foster, R. E. Quarterman, L. E. Room, A. A. Schwearer. House Prefects : W. C. L. Burton, C. R. C. Farmer, P. A. Florence, A. C. Inwood, D. W. Pettet, A. V. Randall, A. E. Reedman, M. S. Shapcott, F. G. Thatcher, A. C. Williams.

THE School will be closed on Good Friday, March 29th, and on Easter Monday, April 1st, but will not break up for the Easter Vacation until April 12th, the Summer Term beginning on Monday, May 6. Sports Day this year will be on April 6th.

War Memorials.

A PRELIMINARY meeting to consider the question of a War Memorial, and to appoint a committee, which will consider possible schemes and report later, will be held in the School Hall on Wednesday, April 10th, at 6.30 p.m. All who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

Cup Final.

THE Cup Final was played this year on Monday, March 4th, between Brading's and Spurgeon's. The game began at 3 o'clock, when the whole School came out to watch.

For the first half-hour, Brading's heavily attacked their opponent's goal. Spurgeon's defence was hardly good enough to cope with this strong offensive, and Brading's netted four times during the first quarter hour. Just before half-time, Ellis, Brading's outside left, scored their fifth goal.

After half-time, the game became more even. Brading's attacks slackened down, and Spurgeon's scored their first goal about half-way through the second half. Almost immediately afterwards Brading's scored their sixth goal. For the rest of the game the play was much slower, but just before the finish, Spurgeon's second goal was obtained. Thus Brading's won, defeating their opponents by six goals to two.

School Football.

THE First XI. has this year had a very successful season, 10 games having been played, of which 8 were won, 1 lost, and 1 drawn.

Since the last issue of the Magazine, two matches have been played. The first versus Wilson's, played at home, resulted in a win for Allyn's by 4 goals to 1. The second, also at home, was played versus Westminster City. This resulted in a substantial win for us by 3 goals to nil.

The Second XI. has played 10 matches, of which 6 were won and 4 were lost.

House Football.

THE final positions in the League were as follows :—(1) Roper's, 28 pts.; (2) Brading's, 25 pts.; (3) Spurgeon's, 20½ pts.; (4) Brown's, 16 pts.; (5) Cribb's, 9 pts.; (6) Tulley's, 6½ pts.

The results of the Cup Competition are as follows :—

1st Round : Brown's beat Roper's (3—0); Cribb's beat Tulley's (3—1); Spurgeon's and Brading's byes.

2nd Round : Brading's beat Brown's (1—0); Spurgeon's beat Cribb's in a replay (3—1).

Final : Brading's beat Spurgeon's (6—2).

School Chess.

THE following is the result of a match played on Saturday, March 9th, versus Sir Walter St. John's School at Battersea.

The School won 2½ games and Sir Walter St. John's School 3½ games.

C. R. C. FARMER.

House Chess.

(1) Cribb's, 15½ pts.; (2) Brown's, 14 pts.; (3) Roper's, 11½ pts.; (4) Brading's and Tulley's, 7½ pts.; (6) Spurgeon's 4 pts.

School Fives.

ON Saturday, January 6th, v. The Old Boys (at home).
Lost, 8—10.

The School represented by G. V. Constantinidi (Capt.), W. C. Burton, H. P. J. Clark, H. L. Dagger, A. C. Inwood, M. S. Shapcott, played a team of Old Boys, the School losing 8 games to 10. The Old Boys were represented by C. S. Herridge, G. M. Brand, A. J. Farrington, L. P. Fleming, H. A. Reid.

ON Saturday, February 23rd, v. Sir Walter St. John's School, Battersea (at home). Won, 14—4. The score by no means represented the play, for our opponents seemed handicapped by the strange courts.

ON Saturday, March 9th, v. Sir Walter St. John's School, Battersea (away). Lost by a single point after a keenly contested game.

The School in both matches was represented by W. Bird, W. C. Burton, H. P. J. Clark, H. L. Dagger, A. C. Inwood, M. S. Shapcott.

Boxing.

THE Inter-House Boxing Competitions took place on February 19th, 20th, and 21st, with the following results:—

Bantam Weight : S. H. Putnam (b), beat J. F. Cullingham (t).

Feather Weight : G. J. Guyer (b), beat A. Lewis (r).

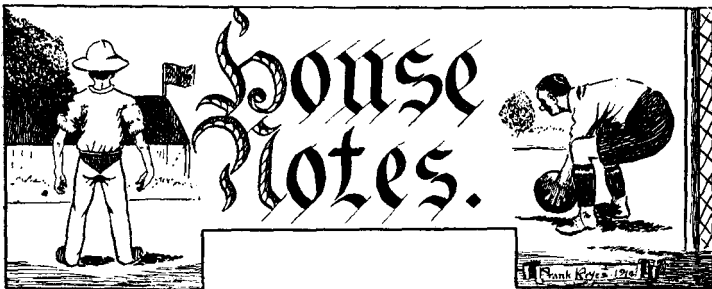

Light Weight : J. D. Bowie (b), beat H. M. Payne (s).

Middle Weight : L. C. Hood (br), beat H. O. Bailey (b).

Heavy Weight : H. P. J. Clark (s), beat J. Parrott (b).

HOUSE POSITIONS.

Brading's, 11 pts. ; Spurgeon's, 4 pts. ; Brown's, 3 pts. ; Roper's and Tulley's, 1 pt. ; Cribb's, 0 pts.

BRADING'S.

HEARTY congratulations to the First XI. on beating Spurgeon's in the Cup Final. This is the first time Brading's have won a football trophy. The Football League result was fairly satisfactory, Brading's coming a good second. In the Reserves' League we have not done so well, coming third. The First Reserves, however, had a remarkably good season.

We did very well in the Boxing Competitions, three of our representatives, S. H. Putnam, Bantams ; G. J. Guyer, Feathers ; J. D. Bowie, Lights ; emerging victorious.

The House offers its congratulations to F. G. Thatcher on his appointment as House Prefect. L. E. R.

BROWN'S.

DURING the Autumn Term we lost E. C. Robbins, the House Captain—joining the R.N.A.S. ; A. C. Murrell ; R. V. Garrett, and E. Whittington. All have done good service to the House, and we wish them every success. G. V. Constantinidi is now House Captain, and C. R. C. Farmer the new House Prefect. Constantinidi is also School Football Captain and a School Prefect.

The Reserves are to be congratulated on winning the Reserves' Football Shield, they have worked hard for their success and deserve it.

Our last letter from Mr. Brown is dated December 18th, and he sends his best wishes to all. The post in Mesopotamia is evidently very irregular, as Mr. Brown appears to be still without many letters posted to him from home. Let us hope that he will fare better with the next batch.

CRIBB'S.

WE have won the Chess Championship for the first time and we owe our success to the keenness of S. J. Windus (Captain), A. Golombek, E. A. Tiffin, and C. L. Bennett.

Our First XI. improved greatly during the season, and in the Semi-Final for the Cup made our opponents (Spurgeon's), go all out ; for we were only beaten after two games and two extra times.

Congratulations to the following on being awarded their House Colours : A. L. Griffith, W. E. Smith, L. Trickey.

ROPER'S.

THERE is little of interest to recount. In the first round of the Cup we were drawn against Brown's, and were beaten 3—0. We badly felt the loss of Brand and Martin on this occasion, and the absence of Brown from the forward line contributed further to our downfall.

Against this disappointment it is pleasing to know that we are top of the league this season.

The vacancies created by the loss of our two Prefects have been filled by the appointment of P. A. Florence and A. C. Williams.

SPURGEON'S.

WE deeply regret the loss of our House-Captain and Senior House Prefect, viz., L. P. Fleming, and C. E. Chatfield. We feel sure that the House will join in wishing them every success in their future careers.

Hearty congratulations to A. C. Inwood on receiving his Prefect's cap.

We are very sorry to note that the House failed to maintain its high position in the Football League, and in the Reserves League, our position being third and second respectively. We were second in the Boxing competitions, H. P. J. Clark winning the Heavy-weight Championship, and H. M. Payne getting into the Light-weight Final.

TULLEY'S.

At Christmas we lost our House Captain, H. A. Reid, who, for many years, had been a very useful member of the House. As a memento of his association with the House, and as a token of our appreciation of all that he had done for it, he was presented with a wrist-watch.

W. R. Foster has succeeded to the House-Captaincy, A. A. Schwearer becoming Senior House Prefect. The House offers its congratulations to A. V. Randall on his appointment as House Prefect, and to A. A. Schwearer on his being awarded School 2nd XI. Football Colours.

The prospects for the Sports are promising, many of last year's runners being still with us.

Harvest Camp.

ON Friday, December 14th, those who took part in harvest work in the Camp at Prickwillow, in August and September last year, received certificates from the Navy and Army Canteens Board.

After the Camp contingent and friends had taken supper together in the Buttery, they adjourned to the School Hall, where the main business of the evening was preceded by a short entertainment of choruses and songs, drawn chiefly from the répertoire of the Camp concerts.

At eight o'clock the Headmaster took the chair, supported by Major Belcher, formerly of the N.A.C.B., now of the Ministry of Food, Mr. F. Hiam, upon whose farms the work was done, and Messrs. Kingswell and Dutton, the masters chiefly concerned in the care of the Camp. The Headmaster drew attention to the records of the work done, which have already appeared. He said that thanks were due to those parents, who had allowed their boys to attend the Camp; to the boys who had done so well; and to the masters who had given their efforts to the care of the Camp, and the control of the work.

Major Belcher in an excellent speech expressed his appreciation of the spirit shown by the boys, and the results they had attained, though he reminded them that with Mr. Hiam they were working under ideal conditions. The situation in the cereal market was very grave, and such work would be very necessary in the coming harvest, and he hoped to see a very large contingent in Camp this year. The potato harvest was much in excess of the usual consumption, and it was necessary to see that none of this margin was wasted. There were many uses for these potatoes, and it was proposed to combine 10 per cent. of potato with flour in bread-making. It was more difficult to make the bread, but the trial would be made, and he hoped that we should do our best to push the sale of this "Victory Bread," as they proposed to call it.

Mr. Hiam said he hoped to see a good number of boys this year. He pointed out how necessary it was that the workers should put forth their best efforts whilst they were at work, and so get the best out of the machinery. This made for efficiency and economy.

Mr. Kingswell thought the most noticeable feature of the camp life was the spirit of the boys, the Alleyn's School spirit, the effort to show what the School could do. Owing to this spirit, everything worked smoothly and well, regulations being willingly obeyed.

Mr. Dutton spoke of the health of the Camp. There had been no serious sickness, the necessary rules were followed by all, and the health of the Camp was maintained.

The proceedings concluded by an exhibition of lantern slides, showing the incidents of camp life and the methods of work.

The War Memorial Service.

THERE was a touching note of personal sorrow pervading the Memorial Service on February 27th. The Old College Chapel was crowded with relatives and friends of the Alleyn Old Boys who have fallen in the War ; but mingled with the sadness was a feeling of subdued pride, that shone out even through the tears that welled from many eyes as the service proceeded. Deep down in the hearts of all present was the proud satisfaction that these young heroes had made the supreme sacrifice at the highest call of duty. One called to mind that within those very walls most of those whose sacrifice was being commemorated had themselves met in worship in their schooldays, and had perhaps been confirmed at that very altar.

It was a sombre gathering that filled the nave of the Old Chapel, for mourning was the general wear. Up in the gallery however khaki predominated, for that part of the chapel was reserved for the School Cadet Corps, who had marched through the Village to the music of bugles and drum. The chancel was occupied by the clergy, the headmaster and several governors, and a choir of boys and masters.

The opening hymn was Archbishop Maclagan's beautiful composition "The Saints of God! their conflict past." Then came the Lesson, which was taken from The Book of Wisdom and The Book of Revelation and was read by the Rev. Oscar Hardman, the College Chaplain. This was followed by the singing of the 23rd Psalm, whose familiar words have brought comfort to countless millions in all ages. Afterwards the congregation stood while the Headmaster read the Roll of Honour which contained 172 names. There were tearful eyes as relatives listened with bowed heads to the names of dearly loved ones. Next the profound silence was broken dramatically by the young buglers in the gallery who sounded the "Last Post," as if seeking to dispel the sorrow and to proclaim the triumph and the pride of the soldier's death. Very softly in sweet cadences, the anthem "Happy and Blest" was rendered by the choir. Special prayers breathing resignation and hope were said by the Chaplain and were followed by the sublime hymn "O God, our help in ages past."

The sermon was preached by the Rev. F. W. Gillingham, Rector of Bermondsey. He is an Old Alleynian, has seen active service as a military chaplain at the front and is well remembered by the boys as a great cricketer. He took for his text "And there shall be no night there" (Rev. xxii. 5).

He said that all should read the last two chapters of Revelation dwelling on the promise of a new Heaven and a new earth, and how "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." It was the night of moral turpitude and intellectual doubt, the night of sorrow and suffering that would be banished. The new Heaven and the new earth would know nothing of these. Certainly we should see our loved ones again, but in what form we could not say, for that was one of the mysteries. But whatever form they might assume, one thing would remain with them and that was memory. Even if those who now sorrowed could have foreseen what would happen they would not have wished to hold their loved ones back from the call of duty. The preacher then turned especially to the School Cadets, and addressed a forcible appeal to those who were yet too young to fight but who in the years to come would have to play their part in reshaping a war-worn world. There would devolve on them the work of seeing that the sacrifice of those great men whose names had just been read was not so much waste. Far above success in athletics, learning, professional life, or commerce stood character. Those who had laid down their lives for their country were watching those left behind at that school. It was for the young cadets to prepare themselves for the future so that they might see to it that all this slaughter of the battlefields would not be sheer waste.

The hymn "For all the Saints who from their labours rest," having been sung, all joined in the National Anthem, the pealing notes of the organ being reinforced by the bugle band. The Blessing brought to a close a most impressive service which will be long remembered by all who took part in it.

The greater part of the Balance was accumulated before any applications for help were received. Since March, 1916, over £240 have been expended in grants and these now exceed the income of the Fund. The Committee confidently appeal for generous contributions.

Correspondence.

To the EDITORS,

DEAR SIRS,

Through the medium of the Magazine I should like to remind the members of the upper forms that, in pre-war days, there flourished in the School a debating society. There are several good reasons which might be brought forward in support of the revival of such an institution. For example, debating should have a broadening effect on one's views, for prejudices are removed and an enlargement of outlook results. Moreover, learning to express one's opinion lucidly, concisely, and with facility, may prove a great asset in after-life.

In the past it has been customary to devote Friday evenings to chess matches, and now that the chess competitions have been completed, would it not be possible to spend such evenings in discussing the leading questions of the day?

If there are indications that the revival of a debating society is desired and would be supported, will budding orators and rhetoricians back up any movement which may be started at a later date, to re-establish such a society ?

Yours, etc.

H. P. J. CLARK,

Prefects' Room, Alleyn's School, Dulwich.
